

Silent Film Immersion

Students will work in teams of five to create their own silent films using the iPad Silent Film App. They will be guided through the storytelling process by a filmmaker and develop their characters alongside actors.

Then, they'll be invited to view their creations on the big screen. A brief and engaging lesson on the history of filmmaking can also be covered if time allows.